What is a will? A will is a legal document that you use to stop the property to close family members, friends or charity institutions. In your will, you name the beneficiaries to inherit your property, an executor to end your property, guardians to take care of your small children, and own caregivers and take care of your pet. You can set up a confidence for money inherited by children. You can also forgive debts to you and declare how you want your dates, expenses and taxes to be paid. To begin creating your will, visit the online nolo page on the nolo website. Back to the top What can I do with it? With this, you can: appoint beneficiaries (and alternative beneficiaries) to inherit your property. Name a guard to take care of your small children. Create a confidence or a custody and choose an adult to manage your children's ownership. Cancel Doubts that others must. Indicate how your dates, expenses and taxes should be paid. Name an executor to perform the terms of his will. Name a janitor for your pet estimation. Back to the top What information do I need to do my will? It will be easier to do your will, if you have gathered some information first: a preliminary inventory of your property (but if you intend to leave everything for one or some people, you can skip this) a list of beneficiaries - that is, people who will get their property a list of alternative beneficiaries - people who will inherit their property if their first choice beneficiaries before you It has small children, a list of your first and second guarding choices a list of your first and second choices for contact information executor people that you name as guardian, executor, or caregiver for your pet information on Doubts you want to forgive, including the date you lent OO And the value that you want to forgive account numbers and places of any accounts that you want to pay to pay Doubts, expenses and taxes back to the top How long will it take to do my will? You could do a very basic will in just a few minutes. But a will is an important document; Do not rush. Put aside one or two hours to think about your desires and do your will. Back to the top How long will you store my personal information? After buying your will, the nolo stores your personal information for a year. During this time, you can return to nolo online legal forms to change your will or print copies for your reference. If you do not want the noodle to keep your personal information, you can delete it at any time. Back to the top And if I have doubts along the way? Online Nolo Legal Forms provide extensive legal and practical information to help you with every step of the way. On the right side of each screen of the interview, you will see information about the choices you are doing from here. Back to the top How will my conclusion be? Click the link below to see a sample. Of course, this is just a sample; Your document will reflect your property, your circumstances and laws of your state. The sample will go back to the top what I do with my will you have completed? You need to sign your will in front of two adults who do not inherit under your will. These people do not need to read the will, but each one should subsist it as a witness. Store this original document in a safe place, such as a fireproof box. (Complete signature instructions will print with the ultimate will.) Back to the top Can I make copies of my will you conclude? It's okay to give a copy of your will to your executor or other loved ones for informational purposes, but do it just with no signed copies, so it's absolutely clear that the copy is not a legally will effective. (It is a good idea to store a song not signed with your signed document if you need to make copies later.) Do not sign more than one copy of the will. Doing this creates more than one original document and can cause confusion after your death. Back to the top And if I want to change anything later? You have access to the online online shapes of your nolo for a whole year from the date of purchase. During this period, you can make revisions as needed. To review your will after you buy it, do login and select the document you want to edit on the initial page of your legal nolo forms. You can not edit your document completed directly - you will need to find the interview screen of the document that has the answer you want to change and do there. If you review your will after finishing an earlier version, you will need to sign it and witness again - as you did with the previous version. Nolo online will always print with instructions that explain how to finalize your will. Back to top What other real estate planning documents can I need it? In addition to a will, you can consider doing: A living confidence (whose main advantage is to avoid judicial investments after your death), a directive of health (to name someone to make decisions related to health if you To get too sick to do this) and a lawyer power (to allow a trustworthy person to organize your subjects if you can not). Learn more about these documents and how they can help your family at Nolo.com. You can make a live online confidence now with the online confidence of nolo. Back to the top Is it safe to do a will without a lawyer? Making a rarely involves complicated legal rules, and if you are like most people, you do not need a lawyer. It's up to you to leave your property however you like. Most people do not find this task a lot Let's walk step by step by the process of making your own legal will. And if there is a situation where you can benefit from the council of a lawyer or other specialist, we will be the first to tell you. If you decide to get help from a lawyer, leave the nolo lawyer's directory, take the guesswork to find a great lawyer. attorney. For the top Is that going right for me? The on-line legal shapes of the nolo will be a direct and legally voted document. It should work well for most people with typical assets such as a home, a car, savings and investments. It is always good to do a simple will - everyone needs one. But there are some situations where you may need more than a simple will and must get specialized advice or at least investigate your options. For example: if you think you or your cAc'njuge can make assets worth more than $ 5 million, your property can be imposed federal real estate, and you should investigate tax economy strategies. If you anticipate family fights, see a lawyer for advice on how to avoid bad feelings and legal battles. If you want to set up a long-term confidence for a child with special needs, find out how you can provide your child without compromising government benefits. See special needs confidence by Stephen Elias and Kevin Urbsch (Nolo). Nolo's online will is not suitable for residents of Louisiana or US territory. You must be at least 18 years of age and the healthy mind (which means that you know what you have and who you want to leave) to make a virid will. For in-depth information about real estate planning, see Plan your property by the best selling author Denis Clifford. Back to the top Why can not I do Nolo's online will in Louisiana? Nolo does not provide real estate planning products for Louisiana. Louisiana's real estate planning laws differ significantly from real estate planning laws in the other 49 states. Louisiana based its laws on the NapoleAAna code, while the other states based its laws on the ordinary English law, and Louisiana's real estate planning laws remain unique.
