Demand Letter Pursuant to Massachusetts General Law Chapter 93A

Dear Landlord:

As you know, I was tenant of yours at _____ (address of the rental unit). I moved out of the apartment on _____. (date). I am writing this letter pursuant to Massachusetts General Law Chapter 93A regarding compensation for security deposit violations. Because you demanded and accepted a security deposit from me on (day) of _____, dollars (amount of security deposit), you are required to comply with the security deposit law, Massachusetts General Law Chapter 186, §15B.

It has been over 30 days since my tenancy was terminated. However, you have not returned the security deposit despite my repeated requests that you do so. Please be advised, that I am therefore demanding three times the amount of security deposit, plus interest, for a total of _____ dollars, as provided for under G.L. c. 186, §15B (9)(c) and (7). This law states in part:

(6) The tenant shall forfeit his right to retain any portion of the security deposit for any reason, or, in any action by a tenant to recover a security deposit or compensation due any damage to the premises if he:

(a) fails to return to the tenant the security deposit or balance thereof to which the tenant is entitled after deduction therefrom any sums in accordance with provisions of the section, together with any interest thereon, within thirty days after termination of the tenancy;

(7) If the tenant or his agent fails to comply with clause (a), (b), or (c) of subsection 6, the tenant shall be awarded damages in an amount equal to three times the amount of such security deposit balance thereof to which the tenant is entitled plus interest at the rate of five per cent from the date when such payment became due, together with court costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

Please consider this a demand letter pursuant to G.L. c. 93A so that I will expect a response within 30 days. Your failure to do so can mean middle damages under the statute. Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Oak Hill Banks
12567 St. Rt. 327
Wellston, Ohio 45692

Dear Ms. Jones:

I am writing regarding my account number 305610 that I have with your institution. I have had this account for several years and have enjoyed being a member of this fine bank. I am having some health issues and will have to undergo a major medical procedure. I need to ask that Lisa Smith, my daughter, be appointed representative over my account during my medical downtime.

Please allow Lisa to make deposits, withdraw cash, purchase money orders or cashier's checks and to have full access to my account. I also have 2 safety deposit boxes with your bank, but she doesn't need access to those at this time. Should I not make it through the surgical procedures, my will allows her access to these boxes. This authorization should be granted from today, DATE until DATE unless otherwise notified.

I appoint Lisa Smith at 9090 David Ave. Jackson, Ohio 45640 to handle my banking. You can reach me on my cell phone at 555-890-7845 if you have any questions. I look forward to continuing my services with you banking institution.

Sincerely,

Robert Smith

Re: Demand of Security Deposit

Greetings:

As you know, I gave you a security deposit when I entered the lease agreement with you. Either you have not returned the deposit at all or you have improperly made deductions from the deposit. I request an explanation at your earliest convenience. If you fail to offer a reasonable explanation I will consider filing suit in court.

Please note that if you retain a security deposit in bad faith you are liable for an amount equal to 150% three times the portion of the deposit wrongfully withheld, and my attorney fees and court costs. See Texas Property Code Section 92.109. (This is not intended to be legal advice so you consult your own attorney.)

Thanks for your prompt attention.
