Contributed by the trademark Discipline of the Ravens that conjures illusions into existence, such phantom images are as real as the Caineite's skill allows, and will even fool technological sensors. While its origins are lost in myths and half-truths, it is assumed to have been developed by the Ravens Antediluvian, and over the centuries has greatly contributed to the perception of ... Vampire: The Masquerade - Redemption is a 2000 role-playing video game developed by Nihilistic Software and published by Activision. The game is based on White Wolf Publishing's tabletop role-playing game Vampire: The Masquerade, a part of the larger World of Darkness series. It follows Christof Romauld, a 12th-century French crusader who is killed and revived as ... Auspex is a Discipline that grants vampires supernatural senses. Auspex is as much reflections of the Curse of Caine as the traditional banes, as it can lead to an obsession with minutiae and distraction from important matters due to focusing on minor details. Also, higher mastery of the discipline can result in Caineites who are accustomed to using Auspex to read the minds of ...
